Please read all of this notice. It contains important information about your company's Health Net group health plan coverage.

After careful consideration, Health Net has decided to discontinue offering commercial group health plans in California.

This includes the closure of all California group plans including:

- California Small Business and Large Group Medical Plans

Health Net has made the decision to exit the traditional commercial group business in California in order to focus on its core business of government sponsored healthcare. This change does not impact the Medi-Cal, Marketplace/Covered California or Medicare lines of business.
